Description

-Welcome to Mersham Manor Antiques- A very sweet French walnut Armoire, of small proportions. Dating from the second half of the 18th century. This very charming armoire has an abundance of warmth and character. Decorated with pretty carved floral motifs to the top and base. The two doors have lovely curvy carved shaped panels, retaining the original and very ornate brass escutcheons. Working lock and key. The heavy, solid doors open on their original hinges, to reveal three adjustable shelves. A very versatile little cupboard, great for many rooms in the home, kitchen, bathroom, hallway, bedroom. Great for linens, T.V cabinet. There is also a hanging rail to the top, so could be used without shelving or with just a couple of shelves and hanging. With working lock and key. A pretty shaped apron and scroll carved feet. Constructed from thick and solid timbers, with panelled sides. The colour is rich and warm, wonderfully patinated. Very heavy, sturdy and strong. The armoire doesn't dismantle. The doors can be easily lifted off the hinges, making it easy to maneuver. The overall condition is excellent antique condition, with general expected signs of age and use. ...
