Description

A handsome antique Regency mahogany and brass inlaid Trafalgar open armchair dating from circa 1810. With rope twist top rail and out-swept sabre legs to the front and back united by later cross-stretcher. Extensively inlaid with brass, the centre rail carved and inlaid with a brass star. The drop-in seat has been newly reupholstered. Good colour and patina. A beautiful statement piece that would make a handsome desk chair.

Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Solid and sturdy with wear and marks commensurate with age. Newly reupholstered. The cross stretcher is a later addition. One of the legs has no brass inlay. The seat rails have been professionally restored and some have been replaced at some point. Dimensions: Width: 55cm Depth: 57cm Height to seat: 46cm Height to Arms: 70cm – 73cm Overall Height: 87cm
