Description

A large old pine dresser, in very nice condition, dating from 1925 from Germany. Recently stripped of its original paint, it is now in the bare wood in a very clean and tidy order. A decorative piece of furniture that would compliment any kitchen or dining room. The top section has 3 glazed doors that open to a shelf in each cupboard. Below this is the work surface, which is a good size, with a plate stand at the back and a pull out bread board. The bottom section has two drawers and double panelled doors that open to a single shelf cupboard. Height 80", width 55", depth 25"
