Description

FINE completely original and un-touched early 18th century carved oak coffer. This coffer is totally original, all the iron work is original including lock and lock plate and pin hinges. The coffer has a carved front with moulded and panelled sides. The coffer has its original candle box inside. One of the nicer features of this example is it stands on high legs which haven't been reduced. The whole piece is a lovely colour with great patination. SIZE; 47" by 21" by 27" high CIRCA; 1720
