Description

Antique silver Errington private label pocket watch, 1893, with silver single albert and fob. The watch has a stem-winding  $\frac{3}{4}$  plate movement which is working nicely. The watch was made by the Errington Watch Company on behalf of the jeweller D MacMillan of Dingwall, and both the movement and the dial are signed with the MacMillan name. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside the hinged case back for Birmingham 1893, together with a maker's mark for Charles Huton Errington of the Errington Watch Company. The Errington Watch Company was established in Coventry in the 1880s and Errington's aim was to compete with Swiss imports. The company was taken over by Henry Williamson just two years after this particular watch was produced. However, Errington remained at the company, in the role of Manager, until he retired in 1910, and he was regarded as one of the most successful Coventry based manufacturers of watches. The case is in good condition with just light surface marks, nothing too detrimental at all. The watch glass has some minor...
