Description

A good Georgian mahogany tilt-top table dating from the late 18th / early 19th Century. It has a circular solid top made from a single thick piece of mahogany on a turned tapering support with tripod splayed legs and attractive pinched feet. It is in good original condition and has developed a lovely rich colour and is strong and sturdy with a good level top. There are various small marks, stains, knocks and signs of use and age which provide the wonderful rich patination but no major damages or anything detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free local delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton. London £45.
