Description

A fine item of George IV silver and glassware. This unusual piece is a spill vase or taper stick vase. Spill vases were used for containing splints, spills, and tapers for transferring fire, for example to light a candle or pipe from a lighted fire. This particular example has a body of glass, extensively cut with diamonds and a star to the base. The rim is finished with an elegant hallmarked silver gilt band. A charming, collectable piece. Dimensions below.

Postage and Packing :- £8.00 UK

£12.00 Worldwide Condition :- Very good, with no

dents, splits or holes to the silver and no cracks to the glass. There is some minor wear and scratching to the silver gilt rim and small knocks to the points of the diamond cutting. All commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Date :- London 1824. Maker :- John Brent. Height :- 6 cms. Diameter :- 5.2 cms.
