Description

An antique silver Waltham pocket watch. The watch has a good quality stem-winding movement with jewelled pallets, Church 1892 Starwheel regulator, jewelled pallets and damascening, all major extra expense at the time of manufacture. The movement is a grade 625 working well. It is fully signed and the serial number 14678663 dates it back to 1905. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch itself measures 49mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside both case backs for Birmingham 1924 with a maker's mark for Aaron Dennison who was heavily involved in Waltham before emigrating to the UK to set up a watch case manufacturing company. The movement has been replaced at some stage of its life although it is correct for its case. The front and sides of the case are in lovely condition. The back has a slight unevenness but overall it is in nice condition for a 1920s watch. The lens is in nice condition with only the odd minor mark. The white enamel dial is signed Waltham and is in nice condition. The watch has its original gold hands with a blued steel sub second hand. The watch will be sent i...
