Description

Large & extremely comfortable antique leather wing armchair with a deep buttoned back, wings & arms. It's in great condition & the leather has a lovely original colour. This armchair has a well shaped hump back, plus generously shaped wings, which is the ideal look for these types of chairs. It's hand tacked all over & has a loose cushion which only adds to the comfort. I particularly like the way the leather is folded on the top of the arms. The seat is fully sprung & the shaped mahogany legs have some subtle carvings on the fronts. The leather has loads of character & it's naturally distressed. There are no splits, tears or holes. This armchair dates to around 1890-1910. Width - 32", 81 cm Depth - 34", 86 cm Height - 44", 112 cm
