Description

Pair of Arts and Crafts Oak Manor House Doors in Arched Frame These Gothic Revival doors and their frame date from the late 19th Century, they are made in Oak and the Arched top frame is 4" thick, the frame had moulded panels The 2" thick doors are planked from the front and are panelled at the interior, they have a weather board at the bottom and have hand made Iron hinges and latches The frame comes in three pieces and there are iron bolts attached to them, we have laid the set on the floor to show best how it looks when assembled, one lovely addition is the original oak lock which comes with its key Needless to say these are very heavy pieces, they are in sound condition with few signs off their great age The overall size of the frame is 120" high and 66" wide, the doors are 44" wide and 78" high CE142 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, Delivery times vary according to your location usually 7 to 28 days We only operate an online store and regrettably viewing in person is not an option.
