Description

A 19th C. bronze centre light. The spreading leaf decorated circular cap, over a triangular scrolled corner capital, with hanging overlapping and folding leaves, enveloping to top of the triangular flat cornered stem. The stem gently outward and downward tapering, with harebell and shell decoration within the fielded panels. From the stem emerge six scrolling leaf decorated arms, running to leaf and flower cast drip pans, containing campana shaped leaf and flower decorated candle holders. The stepped and gadrooned boss following the profile of the stem, and finished to the undersides with scrolling leaves and shells, centred by a wyvern twist floral finial.
