Description

A striking domed top walnut cocktail cabinet from the Art Deco period. Well made in walnut, with burr walnut, burr maple and maple wood veneers. The door fronts are fitted with attractive burr walnut veneers, surrounded with maple wood veneer banding. The domed top upper section has a pair of doors fitted with an impressive brass lock plate. The doors open to access a fitted interior with shelving, a pull-out mixing slide, and original cocktail sticks. It is lined in walnut and birds eye maple veneers. There is an internal light which is in fully functional order. The lower section of the cabinet has another pair of doors which open to access an interior fitted with drawers and slides. All doors are lockable and the keys are supplied. This stunning cabinet has recently been refinished and is now offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home.
