Description

This is an usual glass shade dating from around the 1920's and it has a registered mark on top with the words BRITISH MADE - both are only just visible - see 2nd photo. It measures 17cm in length and 12cm across at the bottom and it has a standard width at the top so it can be used on any UK electrical light fitting. It is in very good condition with no signs of damage. We have a lot of original shades in stock and will be putting them on our own website over the next few months. Postage and packing within the UK mainland only is included in the price. For outside areas or abroad, please contact us for a quote for delivery.

Internal Ref: Shades/126
