Description

Circa 1910-1930 a tall spelter lamp by the famous Moreau foundry with the signature on the base. A young girl is holding a flower pot on her shoulder, with two small light fittings inside the flowers. The lamp measures 75cm at the tallest section and the original marble base is approximately 18cm in diameter. The Moreau signature can be seen in photo 7. The lamp was rewired using dark flex cable and fitted with an online switch by the previous owner and will require an up to date PAT test before use. It is in very good condition and the details are crisp and clear with no signs of damage or repair. Please contact us for a delivery quote at: lancasterantiques@ymail.com. Thank you. Alternatively, if arrangements could be made to collect from SW London or Esher in Surrey, we will offer a discount.
