Description

This is the finest quality of the period and would have been sold by a good London retailer. The Cabinet or Cupboard or even Sideboard is serpentine in form and covered in excellent burr walnut. It has 2 smoothly running drawers over a pair of lockable (key present) cupboard doors and provides plenty of storage. The carved decoration to the feet and around the top is crisp and well executed. This internal structure of the piece is of excellent construction and the quality shines out. In excellent condition having been re finished to a very high standard by ourselves.
