Description

This stunning ANTIQUE SILVER GOBLET was made by Walter & John Barnard (The same company that made the 'Lilly Font' for the Royal Family at which all English Royal babies are baptised) in 1894. This superb Silver Goblet stands at over 10" tall, has a diameter of nearly 5.0" and weighs an impressive 459gm (14.75ozt). Standing on a plain stepped base with knobbed stem, the large bowl is decorated with deep repoussé design of scrolls and flowers with two blank cartouche and, inside, retains the original gilt coating. Despite being almost 125 years old, this exceptional Silver Goblet has virtually no signs of use or wear and is in superb condition. A fabulous Victorian Silver Goblet, in excellent condition which would certainly enhance any silver collection.

Condition  Used / Excellent Virtually Mint condition with little or no signs of use. Except for one almost unnoticeable tiny mark to the stem there are no scratched, dinks or marks. There is no damage and no repairs.  Dimensions  Height - 10.25" (255mm) / Diameter - 4.75" (119mm) Weight - 459gm / 14.75ozt If you require...
