Description

A very good quality Victorian rosewood and inlaid canterbury stool from the well respected Druce & Co. of Baker Street, Portland Square, London. Standing on short turned legs and retaining the original brass cup castors, this stool has decorative "sugar barley twist" support columns to each corner and excellent boxwood inlaid panels on all 4 sides. The newly re-upholstered seat lifts to reveal a rosewood interior with turned canterbury divisions and further inlaid panel to the seat base. Condition- Very good, with original patina and brass fittings, with working lock and keys, maker's label underneath. Size:- Height...19.25"...49cm. Width...21.25"...54cm. Depth...17.75"...45cm. Delivery to most of U.K. mainland £45.
