Description

A charming Victorian silver tape measure. This delightful item of sewing ware has a repousse silver casing with a winding handle to retract the tape. The original blue silk tape is present but sadly there is loss, with it starting at 15". The casing is held by a chain and attaching ring, presumably for a chatelaine. A lovely and collectable piece of early sewing ware. Dimensions below. Postage and Packing contribution £8.00 UK £12.00 Worldwide Condition :- Very good with no crack, breaks or losses to silver. The first portion of the tape is missing. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Full set to front, with part set to back and winder. Date :- Birmingham 1900. Maker :- Henry Matthews. Depth :- 2 cms. Diameter :- 3 cms.
