Description

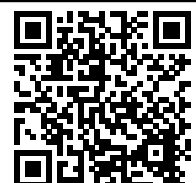

This is an antique centre table, an English, William IV breakfast table in mahogany dating to the early 19th century, circa 1835. Attractive, lustrous wax polished finish to the dark mahogany. Displaying good grain detail and a desirable aged patina. In good proportion and elegant design. Broad circular, tilt top featuring deep edge moulding. Raised on trumpet form pillar anchored in beautifully turned collar. Standing upon a broad, circular platform base. Three, fan carved, scroll feet ride upon hidden brass castors. An appealing example of an antique centre table. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
