Description

SUPERB early 19th century Regency miniature round breakfast table. Beautifully turned mahogany base with turned mahogany column and all the relevant bearers to the underside of the top. The top tilts as on a normal size table. The top is mahogany with a double reeded edge but veneered on the top in segmented birds-eye maplewood, ebony and rosewood in a star burst type design. There is an old chip to the mahogany block underneath otherwise this is in very good condition. No repairs. SIZE; 5 1/4" diameter top. 3" high CIRCA; 1800 - 1820
