E Burton is a recorded clock maker from a long line of family clock makers in Kendal ,below is a little history .Emanuel Burton (I) (1732-1809) – Clockmaker Emanuel Burton (I) was born in Highgate in 1732, the third son of William (I) and Jane. He married Deborah Lancaster in 1756 in Kendal and lived in Stricklandgate, where William and Joseph were born, until 1760. From 1761 to about 1766, the family lived in Fish Market in Stramongate Ward, for which Emanuel was Churchwarden in 1764 and 1765.¹⁶ Their next move was to Allhallows Lane in Highgate around 1767, where Emanuel's father still lived, and here they stayed until Deborah's death in 1805. Emanuel may have moved to live with his son James in Whitehaven, or possibly died on a visit, for he was buried there in November 1809.¹⁷ He was identified as a clockmaker on several occasions – when Churchwarden in Kendal in 1765, in the Universal British Directory of 1790 w...
