Description

If you missed a similar example I had a few months ago, this is your chance to buy this figural jewellery box dating to around 1880, late Victorian in period. The box is made from stunning burl Walnut with wonderful graining and a delightful rich caramel colour. The lid is inlaid with a boxwood and ebony stringing. The top of this Grand Piano opens to reveal a red velvet interior and the music starts ... I am unsure of the song played, very pretty. The box is wound from the underside and is made by the famous Swiss manufacturer, Reuge. Even the lid to the keyboard opens to reveal a "keyboard" and carved and painted "sheet music", quite charming. The box comes with a working tasselled key, sitting in the diamond shaped escutcheon. The box stands on four beautifully turned Walnut legs. A stunning box and perfect gift in superb condition, measuring 7 1/2" x 5 1/2" x 4 1/4" tall. Item ID: 31369
