Description

An elegant antique Edwardian music cabinet in Mahogany with satinwood inlay and floral painted sides dating from circa 1905. Comprising an open shelf with pierced and inlaid sides above a single paneled door with inlay of musical instruments. The sides are beautifully painted with a design of flowers. The door has an attractive drop handle and opens to reveal storage and a single (removable) shelf. It stands on slim tapered square legs which terminate spade feet, inlaid with satinwood. A really stylish and useful item that would make a great music cabinet, collectors chest, hall unit or shoe cupboard. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: In original condition with general age related wear and marks. Some scratches and deep scuffs to the top. The door is slightly warped and sticks out towards the bottom. Dimensions: Width: 43cm Depth: 42cm Height: 93cm
