Description

Early George III mid 18th century Cuban mahogany tilt top wine table. Lovely shape base with turned column and cabriole shape legs with pad feet. The round top is dished with a nicely moulded inner edge. The Table is all original and has not been "married up". The table has a deep original patination and is a lovely colour from years of waxing. There are a couple of minor old repairs to the dish top but nothing serious. Just a very nice piece of early Georgian mahogany. SIZE; 17" diameter top. 27 1/2" high CIRCA; 1750 - 1760
