Description

Large landscape showing a view of a small lake in winter. The oil on canvas is signed by the well listed artist, Xavier Wurth and probably dates from the late 19th century/early 20th century. The painting is mounted in its stunning original frame. The painting has some invisible restorations. Xavier Wurth was born in 1869 in Liège - died in 1933. He was a painter of landscapes and portraits. From 1889 to 1893, Xavier Wurth was student of Witte and E Carpentier at the Academy of Fine Arts of Liège. From 1900 to 1914, he painted the Ardennes and particularly the valleys of the Ourthe and Amblève. He then became professor of drawing at the Academy of Fine Arts in Liège. However, from 1924 illness somewhat hampered his work. Wurth has exhibited annually in the circle of fine arts of Liège and distinguished himself as a lovable landscape artist particularly skilled in the rendering of the Ardennes rivers. From 1889 to 1893, Xavier Wurth studied with Adrien de Witte and Évariste Carpentier at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in Liège. He exhibits on numerous occasions and was awarded the the Prix de Rome. He was a friend of Richard Heintz, Auguste Donnay and Albert Sir...
