Description

A quite special mahogany 12 inch wall clock with the unusual addition of gilded hands and convex glass. The back box has the unusual addition of two side doors making it easier to get the pendulum on and off. The movement is a substantial high quality fusee with the T and R stamp on the front plate indicating it was supplied to Whitehorn of Hampstead by Thwaites and Reed. Whitehorn of Hampstead is recording working from the 1870s and we would date this clock around the 1890s. This clock is now shown fully restored and will be sold with a 12 month guarantee.
