Description

An interesting and highly sought-after Edwardian games box dating to around 1900/1910 made from rich Mahogany, the top being decorated with central and corner fan inlays. The box is kept closed with two solid brass catches to the front in perfect working order. Once opened a plethora of fun awaits. The inside of the lid contains two folded card games boards; the first looks to be for Ludo and the second for chess and checkers, this one also opens out further to reveal the reverse side for a horse racing game. The boards are kept in place with a clever hinged wooden device. The interior also includes: A complete set of 28 bone and ebony dominoes. A dual wood cribbage board with bone pins. Three score pads with pencil. A turned Fruit Wood dice shaker. A complete turned and carved wooden chess set. A complete set of 28 checkers. Two large dice and one smaller one. Two packs of playing cards. A selection of various gaming counters. The box is in excellent condition, measuring 13" x 8" x 3" when closed. Item ID: 31398 ----- FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail; Insurance Optional.
