Description

A fabulous and rare 17th century oak side table of superb colour and patination. This table is a very unusual piece, having the date 1695 and owners initials R.D carved into the drawer front. The baluster legs are fluted and terminate into blocks decorated with flower heads. The stretchers are decorated with a carved zig zag pattern, the rail underneath the drawer is decorated with small lunet decoration as are the top side rails. The table is in excellent condition.
