Description

A small & deep antique pine wardrobe which dismantles for delivery. Double doors and two bottom drawers, each with the original brass drop handles. Currently there is partitioning and shelving inside, but these can be removed if you wish, and replaced with a new brass hanging rail. Please let us know of your requirements. Originally used as a linen cupboard, this would make a nice size wardrobe as it is deep enough to hang large coat hangers. Recently stripped of its original paint, it is in a very nice and clean order throughout, exposing a lovely bare wood. A classic looking piece, that is very well made and solid. Height 72", width 46.5", depth 26.5", internal depth 22"
