Description

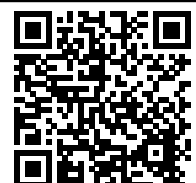

An early 20thC heavy brass Arts and Crafts mirror with a wide decorative frame and the original mirror glass. It measures 57cm across and 44cm in length and the borders are 9cm wide. There are no signs of damage or repair anywhere on the frame although the glass does have some age related discolouration. The backing is completely original and is made of a wooden frame with a tin (or similar material) centre. Postage and packing within the UK mainland only is included in the price, but for outside areas or abroad, please contact us for a quote for delivery.
