Description

A lovely Victorian writing slope with campaign style brass handles and matching brass cartouche. The interior of the box is fitted with a good quality red velvet writing surface and there is a removable pen tray as well as two glass inkwells. The writing slope is excellent quality and is in good condition for its age with a beautiful patina. It has been waxed and polished, the brass work has been lightly polished and it displays very well inside and out. There are no major detrimental damages - just a small chip on one corner, another small repaired chip on the back and a piece of veneer has been replaced on the top surface (see photos). Inside, the velvet is in good condition with some minor wear and slight fraying on one tab but nothing detrimental. The glass inkwells are in good condition however they do not have lids. There is no key to the box. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery £10.
