Description

Set of 4 Regency mahogany dining chairs This set of 4 Regency mahogany dining chairs were made circa 1820. The chairs are fitted with the comfortable curved bar backs. The central splat consisting of 2 fine rails sandwiching the turned draught design roundels. This set of 4 dining chairs have drop in seats, which enables you to change the upholstery very easy and not at all expensive. The chairs have the desirable feature of sabre shaped front legs. The design of the sabre legs was taken from the curved shape of cutlass swords, which were very fashionable due to Britain's great naval victories in this period. Imagine when these chairs were made, Great Britain was still enjoying the great Naval and land victories of Trafalgar and the Battle of Waterloo. No doubt the original owners would have sat on these chairs with friends, and wondered at the great tales they had read in the journals of the time. 83cms high 46cms wide 47.5cms deep Seat depth 41cms Seat width 40cms Seat height 45cms high UK mainland delivery £75+vat
