Description

A superb convex circular wall mirror dating from the early 19th century. It has a gilded carved frame with egg and dart decoration on the inner frame and carved acanthus leaves around the outer frame. The glass is surrounded by an ebonised reeded slip. It is in good original condition with the original mirror plate which has slightly foxed and spotted around the edges. There are some minor damages and small losses around the edges of the mirror but nothing detrimental and it displays very nicely. It has been lightly cleaned and is ready to hang. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery £35
