Description

A superb Regency rosewood & brass inlaid centre table attributed to Gillows of Lancaster. The tilting well figured circular top with a single brass line to the edge & double inlay bordering the top. The frieze with split beaded edge. The base also inlaid with broad brass stringing & bellflower inlay. The table is supported by a tapering hexagonal gadrooned collar centre column supported on a gadrooned and panelled tri-partite base, with bold acanthus & hairy paw carved feet. Further information. Gillows of Lancaster were probably the most celebrated of all English furniture makers. They were established in the early 18th C & pieces made by Gillows are very desirable & extremely sought after. This particular piece eschews superb quality throughout.
