Description

A lovely large two-part pine cupboard with shelved interior, dating from the late 19th Century. It has nicely panelled cupboard doors with arched detail and brass knobs. The shelves are adjustable and removable. It is in good condition and has been cleaned and given a smooth waxed finish. The interior is clean and tidy and the shelves are sturdy. There has been some repair work done to one hinge but it is strong and sturdy now. There are signs of age and small minor knocks but nothing detrimental and it displays very nicely.
