Description

A superb quality Victorian period chiffonier, or side cabinet, in rosewood by the renowned London cabinet makers Howard and Sons. Of the finest construction with in solid rosewood and with attractive rosewood veneers onto a mahogany carcas. The top section has a single glazed door and an arrangement of shelves. The base section has a pair of glazed doors flanked by corner alcoves with shelving. All doors are lockable (Hobbs and co locks) with the key supplied. The whole piece is decorated throughout with crisply carved detailing, roundels and turned columns. Sympathetically refinished in our workshops and now offered for sale in excellent condition with a wonderful colour and patina. Dimensions: Width 112cms Depth 45cms Height 176cms In 1820 John Howard started trading at 24 Lemon St, London, as a 'Cabinet Manufacturer'. He was to stay there for nine years until he moved premises to 27 Great Alie St. and then later in 1832 he was to move the small distance to 34 Great Alie St where he would stay and open an upholstery workshop/showroom at 36 Red lion St until 1845 (the Red Lion premises were only used for one year).It wasn't until 1848 after a short period of non-tradin...
