Description

An amazing late Victorian English perpetual calendar with the most decorative repousse front plate made from solid brass with stylized floral and foliate detailing rising to a vacant cartouche at the top, perfect for engraving if desired. Behind this decorative fascia is a glass panel to protect the fabric panels behind which indicate the day, date and month. The knobs each side are used to operate the calendar forwarding and reversing the rollers.

Dating to around 1890, it all remains in excellent working order, a stylish addition to any home or office. 6 5/8" x 4" x 2 1/2" deep. Item ID: 30788 ----- FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail.
