Description

A lovely oak chest of drawers dating from the early to mid 18th Century. They have a moulded top over four graduated drawers with good quality panelled sides, set on shaped bracket feet with later brass plate handles. They have a beautiful rich patination and a good country look. There are the usual minor signs of wear and age and some old repairs where small chips have been replaced with new pieces of wood but nothing detrimental or untoward for a chest of this age. One of the bottom handles is slightly different to the rest but it doesn't stick out. The drawers run well and are generally clean and tidy however there are some minor stains and splits within the drawers. The chest is strong and sturdy and overall they're a good quality set that displays beautifully. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free local delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton. London £50.
