Description

Antique 18TH Century French PROvincial Joined Oak Dresser and dating from to 1771 . Constructed from solid oak it has a flared cornice top above a hand carved frieze with name and date which we believe to be original to the dresser and correct and in the name of J.M.A. HAMANN 1771. This is above two shelves with carved skirts and the dresser top is carved to each side and with pierced hearts. The base has a moulded edge to the top above two paneled doors each with a fielded panel and carved patera to the centre with later brass escutcheon and carved and shaped frieze to the base. Internally there is a central divide with a single shelf to one side and two original shelves to the other side. The whole being raised on stile feet. It is hand and peg joined and separates into two pieces for ease of transporting, MEASURES: 81" HIGH X 43" HIG TO TOP OF BASE X 18.5" DEEP X 57.5" WIDE With a lovely deep colour and patination and oozing all the charm and character of the period. Our furniture is cleaned and polished using traditional waxing methods.
