Description

Charming early 19th century "country made" elegant lamp table. The round top with quarter flame mahogany veneers with brass line and wide burr yew-wood cross banding. The hexagonal column is veneered in walnut as is the platform base except for the top surface which is matching burr yew-wood to the cross banding on the top. Nice shaped walnut moulding around the base of the column. The table stands on turned walnut feet. The table is a nice colour with good patination. The condition is good apart from very minor veneer chips commensurate with age around the edges. SIZE; 18" diameter. 30" tall. CIRCA; 1820 - 1840
