Description

A good early Victorian fold over mahogany tea table set on attractive ring turned tapering legs, dating from the mid 19th century. It has a solid mahogany top which is hinged and folds over to rest on the back leg which swings out to act as a support. It displays very nicely as a side table and also looks good opened up into a larger table - measuring 91cm x 90cm when open. It is in good original condition and is strong and sturdy. The top surface has faded slightly over the years but has a nice patina. There are normal signs of age and light wear and some minor marks and knocks but nothing detrimental and no major damages. The table has been cleaned and given a light polish and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
