Description

Originating from France and sourced from just outside Paris from a private home is this fabulous and totally authentic modernist combination wardrobe. If you're looking for style, quality then look no further this wardrobe oozes it all. Bought as part of a matching set which was custom made for a private house hold back in the 1930's, this piece and other matching parts * see our other listings* is fresh to the market and has only ever had one owner. Although this wardrobe has been lovingly looked after since first purchased we've also had it professionally and fully restored. The striking blonde satinwood veneers set against the beautifully contrasting figured walnut makes this an easily integrated piece to both the modern and period bedroom setting. Features four generously sized drawers which open and close effortlessly. A single door reveals another generously sized shelved storage space with five open shelves and mirror to the door. The dressing area has a marble top with mirror backed panel, ideal for the male or female of the household. These types of wardrobes really don't offer themselves onto the market very often, just take a quick search across the net to see...
