Description

This stunning PAIR OF EDWARDIAN WALL LANTERNS, still with the oil lamp burners inside and with their original bevelled glass panels, date from circa 1910. The BRASS cases have weathered to give a comfortable, country house feel. Just imagine them hung in a porch, portico, hall or along an open walkway. The LANTERNS have handles to the top for easy carrying should you so wish. The brackets on the back enable them to be hung on a wall. Height (inc. raised handle): 16.5 inches (42 cm) Width: 8.75 inches (22.5 cm) Depth: 6 inches (15.5 cm)
