Description

This is an antique corner cabinet, an English oak, late Georgian floor standing cupboard dating to circa 1800. Attractive deep tones to the oak with fine, consistent colour. Attractive grain interest prominent through the wax polished finish. Interior neatly divided by three shelves in the upper cabinet and one to the lower. Canted side panels beneath a modest crown moulding. Shaped field panel door to the upper cabinet. Doors hinged on later solid brass butterfly show hinges. Original brass lock escutcheon, iron lock with key absent. A handsome floor standing, antique corner cabinet with solid joints and construction. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
