A fabulous little pill box made from English sterling silver with a hinged lid and gilded interior. The top of course is what makes this a special and highly sought-after example decorated with a central lilac coloured guilloche enamel and a band of pale ice blue enamel. With a bright shiny patina the engine turned decoration below is showcased, a really pretty example. The underside is where the hallmark can be found for Birmingham 1912 together with the makers initials for the silversmith, Charles Edwin Turner.
