Description

An exceptionally fine, solid silver toast rack. Lovely classic design, the rack has 6 good sized compartments (would fit a variety of slice sizes) and sits nicely level on a good solid rectangular base, supported on four neat paw feet. It has a nice handle on the top, all culminating a most aesthetically pleasing item. Made from exceptionally good heavy gauge silver it feels a really good weight when picked up by the handle. Very clearly defined hallmarks can be seen on the side for the Birmingham Assay Office with a date mark of 1927 and Lion Passant indicating sterling silver, along with the maker's marks for the quality silversmiths: Jays (Robert William Jay). This a superb Toast Rack. Condition: This toast rack is in superb antique condition. Suitable for a collector of the finest silver! Hallmarks and maker's marks: Birmingham 1927 by Jays (Robert William Jay). Measurements: Height: 9 cm approx. Width: 11.7 cm approx. Depth: 6.4 cm approx. Weight: 117 grams approx.
