Description

A very striking and unusual 19th Century leather stick stand with painted royal coat of arms. This stick/umbrella stand in unusual blue leather is bound with stitched leather strapping and has chunky padded side handles, giving a solid and robust appeal. The blue leather is a superb foil for the multi colours in the painted coat of arms. The condition of the stand is good, it stands firmly on concealed metal studs to the base. A very practical and decorative Victorian stick/umbrella stand ready to add style to any entrance hall. c.1890 Height: 28.75" (73cm) Diameter: 11" (28cm)
