Description

Antique mahogany linen press We are pleased to offer you this Antique mahogany linen press. This linen press was made circa 1830. The cabinet maker would have spent time choosing the fine flame mahogany to use on the panel doors. The panelled doors open to reveal the linen slides. Quite often people take the slides out and store them, and then fit a hanging rail to the interior to make it a useful hanging wardrobe. This lovely piece of late Georgian furniture, splits into 3 pieces for ease of transportation into and around your home. The cornice lifts off and the top section comes away from the base. The base section consists of a pair of drawers above 2 graduated full width drawers. Not only is this linen press fantastic to look at, it also is 100% practical with no wasted space. Imagine how much you can fit into it, these are amazing space savers. This linen press is unique to us and as it has been selected for our stock you have the Hingstons Antiques brand guarantee. 128.5cms wide across the cornice 57cms deep deepest part of cornice 200cms high 121cms wide at the waist UK mainland delivery £75+vat
