Description

William IV rosewood work and card table Here we offer you this William IV rosewood work and card table, that stands on a circular platform base. The top that swivels and opens to make a games table. Under the top are 2 drawers, fitted with the original turned knob handles. It has U shaped supports under, with a turned column that rises from the circular platform base. This William IV table is supported on delightful scroll feet. This side table is very versatile and can be used in many places around the home. Originally this table would have been made to be used by the lady of the house to use as a sewing table, or play parlour games with other female guests or her children. It would be placed in a room where guests were to visit to show the success the family were enjoying to be able to own such an item. Imagine how wonderful this will look in your home and the many admiring comments it will surely bring. This antique work table is unique to us and as it has been selected for our stock you have the Hingstons Antiques brand guarantee. 53.5cms wide 37cms deep 77cms high 73cms wide games table open 53.5cms UK mainland delivery £75+vat
