Description

An outstanding pair of open armchairs dating from the Aesthetic Period of the late 19th Century. This pair of chairs with sprung seats have reeded frames terminating with turned finials, gently curving arm rests and rolled headrests. The chairs have been reupholstered by our craftsman using traditional methods and materials. The condition of the chairs is excellent. A superb pair of very comfortable antique chairs with timeless appeal to add style and flare to any interior. c.1890 Height: 38" (97cm) Width: 22" (56cm) Depth of seat: 20" (51cm) Height of seat: 17" (43cm)
